To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to comment on the outstanding efforts put forth by Green Fore Green as it pertains to the assistance that they have provided our not for profit organization, TroopsDirect. TroopsDirect supplies American forces around the globe with any critically needed items that they cannot access through the military supply chain.

We were initially contacted by Green Fore Green over a year ago as they expressed their desire to support our organization. The support would come from fundraising on the golf course in the form of games and/or activities that would involve the golfers that Green Fore Green interacted with. We provided them with TroopsDirect literature and the rights to our logo. To date our relationship has been positive and transparent and continues to develop. The financial support that we have garnered from Green Fore Green has enabled TroopsDirect to provide for American service members across four continents and at sea with items including but not limited to protective gear and medical supplies.

In closing, because of their spirit, service and ethics, Green Fore Green is an asset both to TroopsDirect and to the sport of golf. Please contact me with any questions or comments at 925-380-6097 or via aaron@troopsdirect.org.
